Vestiges of the « machine de Marly »...

Tour 2

Today the town of Bougival still retains the enchanting atmosphere of the 19th century when it attracted impressionist painters who would put up their easels on the banks of the Seine, in order to capture the fleeting effects of light, color and season.

But Bougival is also famous for this civil engineering wonder, known as the Machine de Marly which functioned for over 133 years.

Russia in the Yvelines

From Bougival to Mesnil-Saint-Denis

PRICE PER PERSON :

FROM 55€

For groups up to 20 people

Visits from Monday to Friday

Price includes:

- ◆ Admission fee + guided tour of the Datcha (1h30) and the Skit (1h)
- ◆ Lunch (including drinks)

10h30

Discover the house of Ivan Turgenev, the « Datcha » nestled on the « Hill of the Impressionists » in lush greenery overlooking the scenic loops of the Seine.

You will discover the life and work of this famous Russian novelist, defender of human rights. Through manuscripts, paintings, objects, rooms the soul of this illustrious figure will envelope you. You will learn about his passion for Pauline Viardot, a celebrated French opera singer with whom he had a lifelong platonic relationship and his close relationship with contemporary writers including Flaubert, Mérimée, Daudet, Zola, Maupassant... On the upper floor you will find his study and his bedroom where he died in 1883.

15h00

Discover the Skit du Saint-Esprit, a byzantine style Russian orthodox monastic site founded in 1934 in the woods of Fay.

This church's reputation is mostly due to its frescoes painted on the interior walls by father Grégoire Krug (1908-1969), a monastic iconographer who lived there for 20 years. This outstanding set of icons is of significant importance.
